

DOGS OF HIGH AND LOW DEGREE.

Brooklyn's Four Hundred Attend the Kennel Club's Initial Show.

Thirtieth Regiment Amory Resounds with Sonorous Barks and Snappy Yelps.

Entries Made from All Points, as Far Distant as Des Moines, Montreal and Chicago.

JUDGES HAVE A HARD DAY'S WORK.

But in the Majority of Instances Their Awards Have Given General Satisfaction—The Affair to Be Made an Annual One.

The rafters of the old Thirtieth Regiment Amory, in Brooklyn, were fairly crowded yesterday from their apathy. It was the opening day of the first annual kennel show under the auspices of the Metropolitan Kennel Club. Brooklyn's wealth and fashion took kindly to the innovation, with the result that all those of the accredited set in the City of Churches turned out to greet the seven hundred canine aristocrats that had put in an appearance.

The neighborhood of Hanson place and Flatbush avenue was in its best bib and tucker. The dogs appreciated the honor and responded in an unmistakably demonstrative manner.

In the hall, which had not experienced such stirring times since the regiment's colors were transferred, four rings were rattled off for the judges to make their decisions. These were kept busily engaged from early morning until dusk prevented the experts from continuing their task.

Throughout the day the rings were surrounded and the aisles between the benches were crowded with Brooklyn's light and beauty.

Among those present were Mayor Wurst, Mr. Wurst, the Mayor's cabinet, including Fire Commissioner W. C. Bryant, Police Commissioner Leonard Welles, Commissioner of City Works Willis, Lieutenant-Governor-elect Timothy L. Woodruff, Health Commissioner Emery, Building Commissioner Bush, Deputy Fire Commissioner Barrow, the Board of Aldermen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Beard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aronson, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Berri, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Hexter, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Hexter, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cappers, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Dykeman, Dr. and Mrs. Walter D. Guggenheim, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Babcock, Colonel and Mrs. John V. Cuyler, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Chadwick, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cappers, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bernheim, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Manly, Winthrop Rutherford, "Jimmie" Kernochan, J. M. Carochan, J. K. Bloodgood, Colonel Partridge, Dr. and Mrs. G. D. Hamlin and David Austin.

Judging will be continued at 10 o'clock this morning.
